PARTICULARS OF SALE

DIRECTIONS

From Lochgilphead travel south on the A83 towards Campbeltown. Travel through Tarbert and the plot is situated after the village of Clachan but before Tayinloan. The turning is on the left hand side about 5.5 miles after Clachan sign posted Balure Farm. The plot is on the left hand side just before the woodland.

SITUATION

The plot enjoys a rural position but is well placed for local amenities. There are primary schools in the neighbouring villages of Tayinloan and Clachan. Secondary schooling is available at Tarbert Academy in Tarbert and Campbeltown Grammar School in Campbeltown. Shops for everyday needs are available locally and there is a filling station in Clachan. Tarbert, Campbeltown and Lochgilphead have amenities including small supermarkets, specialist shops, banks, post offices, professional offices and health care facilities. There are local bus services and also a regular bus service to Glasgow. Machrahanish Airport near Campbeltown has daily flights to Glasgow. Kintyre is a wonderful location to bring up a family and is also perfect for sailing, golfing, bird watching, wildlife watching and walking.

DESCRIPTION

The plot is an excellent opportunity to construct an individual detached home in this spectacular setting with sea views. The position is ideal set between the sea and hills with fine westerly views to Gigha, Jura and Islay. The plot is set well back from the main road and has good access via a level track. It is set on a sheep farm with the neighbouring fields used for grazing.

The planning granted is planning in principle for a detached dwelling of one or one and a half storeys finished in a smooth render with a slate or artificial slate roof. The plot is extensive and will easily accommodate a home of 3 or 4 bedrooms if not larger.
